Senior History

Just like that, these four years of high school have come and gone ever so quickly. We have grown strong as a class. We've had amazing memories and we plowed through struggles that were thrown at us. Our experiences together helped bring us to senior year.

Freshman year came and we all were ready to embark on our journey through high school. Being the new kids on the block was quite different than ruling the middle school as 8th graders. We were told about the homework load, and the responsibility and we knew we could handle it. Especially with the fun that came with it. We got to pick our class color and we chose black out of a few options. We represented our class color on Booster day next to the float we made of the Eiffel Tower. We supported our chosen Knight, Nick wells and Lady in Waiting, Kaylanna Frost as we marched behind them in the parade. Our class song at the pep rally was "Knock you down". Band and Chorus traveled to Philadelphia to complete and take home a prize. We did the Fundraiser Donkey Ball, which brought us together as a class as well. In the spring Softball won State Champs.

Sophomore year was also well spent growing together. Our float was Mario and Luigi and we proudly marched next to it on Booster day representing our newly chosen class color red. Duchess Morgan Ozdarski and Dutch Tyler Richardson were shown off to represent our class in a convertible. Our song at the pep rally was "Tonight Tonight". Boy's soccer won 1st League Champions, Turners beat Greenfield on Turkey day, and Softball became State Champs. You could say our sports had a successful year.

Junior year came and we realized we had to start looking toward the future. We took AP classes, like Meads and many of us took the SATs. College searches began and many were accepted in the National Honors Society. We did not have any floats because of Triple E, but we did have a class song which was "Eye of the Juniors" that was sung extremely well. We got a new principle, who became our fearless leader. That fall, football went to the super bowl and beat Greenfield on Turkey day. We had a blast at Prom at the Wachusett Inn in West Minister. It couldn't have been better! Chorus traveled to Virginia with Mr. Bradley to take home 3rd place at competition.

Senior year has finally arrived and big decisions have started to be made. College applications and admissions are coming in. We have grown so much together and became a huge part of one another. We cannot wait to graduate but we will never forget the memories like hallway wars which we won by decorating as much red in our hallway as possible. A new principle came along with new teachers. Class mates continue classes at GCC in dual enrollment. We get to park in the front row of the student parking lot. (well only if you get to school early) At the Booster day pep rally we enjoyed "Pin the Tail on the Panther" and class tug-of-war. Field Hockey won League champions! Football won Western Mass and beat Greenfield for the third time in a row! Next semester will be planned with wins and fun and excitement as well. We look forward to bringing back Donkey Basketball and doing our annual Moe's Fudge and Hillside Pizza fundraisers. Raising this money will help us all go on our senior trip to Wild Wood Park New Jersey in May. Also none of us can wait until our senior prom at the Yankee Pedlar Inn in Holyoke! Just a couple months until we are fitted into caps and gowns and are on stage for awards night. Then on May 30th the day we've all been waiting for, GRADUATION!

A thousand more memories have happened that brought us together as a class. Now, the time has come where we graduate as a whole. It has really been the time of our lives and we will always remember the fun times we all had together. We plan on enjoying these last few months together and making the best of them. We've accomplished so much to bring us all to the journey we have all been waiting for. Congratulations class of 2014, we made it!

Junior History

Homecoming week: The class of 2015 covered their hall in an amazing amount of pink. There were giant pink cut-outs of sports players and pink streamers everywhere. We proudly showed school spirit and dressed up for the spirit days.

Fundraisers: This year we sold wreaths, Turkey day sweatshirt, and promoted Santa's breakfast.

Highlights: We won the powderpuff game and are currently planning an exciting prom.

It is amazing how many memories we have made this year and that we will cherish when we graduate next year.

CLASS OF 2016

Sophomore History

Homecoming week: The class of 2016 decorated our hall with an abundant amount of purple during the intense hallway war competition. We all came together as a class to march in a parade as well as dressing up for the spirit days.

Fundraisers: This year we began to sell our Super Fan T-Shirts as well as sold Yankee candle products.

This year the class of 2016 grew closer as a class to work together and show our spirit! Our class has made many memories together that we will never forget.

Lauren Grimard

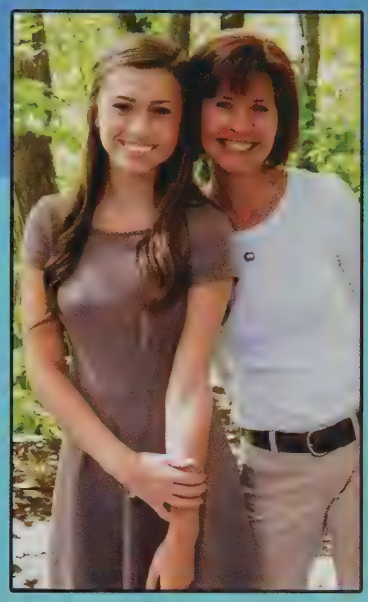
Lauren,
I can't believe you are a senior already! After all those mornings when you were younger dragging out of bed for school, you are now driving yourself there and on time! (most of the time). Through middle school and high school you've become an incredibly curious, creative, athletic, and thoughtful young adult. You have so many talents and skills to take you anywhere in your life and there is so much in store for you.
Let your passions drive you!
You did it and you have so much to be proud of!
Love your big brother,
Jason

Lauren,
Congratulations, I'm so proud of you! Where did the time go? It seems like high school flew by. You have achieved so much: National Honors Society, leading role in the plays, Western MA track star and record breaking point setter in field hockey.
You can make the funniest faces (selfies), copy people's movements to perfection and are an incredible drawer.
Always stand up for what you believe and that will take you far.
Be sure to take time just for yourself.
Love, Dad

Lauren,
It's amazing to see how far you've come in such a short amount of years. You're becoming such a beautiful young woman and it's hard to believe you'll be attending college shortly! Those years will really fly by so don't take them for granted. Remember all you've achieved in high school with being in NHS, leads in the musicals and captains of sports teams. I know you'll do great wherever life takes you and I'll be proud to call you my little sister along the way. I'm here for you whenever you need me. =)
Love you,
Hackey

Laus~
I can't believe this time has arrived. Your high school years flew by and you have accomplished so much. You should be proud of yourself as I am of you. As you plan your future, you have had some question of where to go and what to do next. You will find that path as you move forward and do what is best for you. You are so talented in many ways and you are always fun to be around.
In the fall, you will become a little fish in the big pond and you will continue to make me proud.
Love, Mai

Danielle Bassett



Dear Danielle,
Congratulations, we are so proud of the beautiful, independent person you have become. Your determination will get you far. Always believe in yourself and all that you are. There is something inside you that is greater than any obstacle. We love you.
xoxo

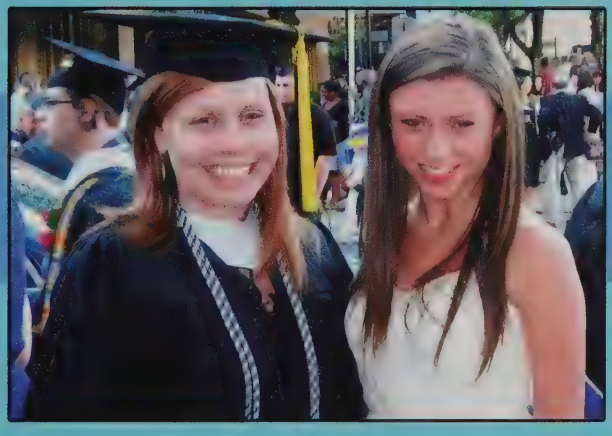
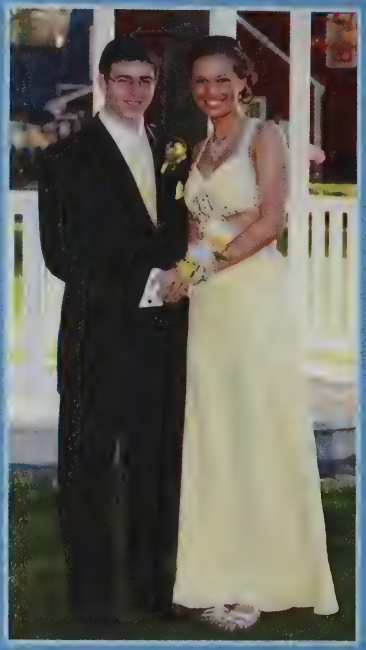
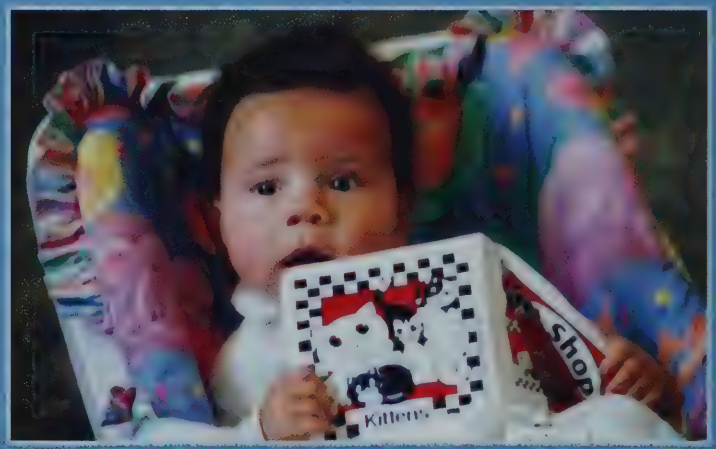
To my lovely, little (now old) sister:
You used to drive me crazy by stealing all my clothes and messing with all my stuff. Now you give me fashion advice and do my hair. I am very fortunate to have a sister who has grown into someone i can call a friend, do dumb stuff with, and generally brag about being cool. You are intelligent, charismatic, creative, and going great places. I cant wait to see what the future holds for you. Enjoy this new exciting chapter of your life.
Love, Kara





Jaimee White

Congratulations Jaimee!
We are so proud of you and the person you have become. You have achieved all the goals you set for yourself and watching you grow through the different stages of your life has been a joy for us.
You are a special girl full of compassion, energy, and enthusiasm for life, which will bring you many great adventures in the next stage of life. Best of luck in college - stay positive!
We all love you.
Love,
Mom, Dad, Andrea and Aaron



Courtney Lee

Where has the time gone? I can hardly believe the big day is approaching. My "BABY GIRL" is growing up way too quickly. It's almost time for you to embark on this fabulous journey that is life. It's so open in the real world and I know you will do phenomenal things! I am so proud of you and all of your accomplishments. The determination, drive, and hard work you have demonstrated these past four years. You are graduating with high honors while at the same time participating in sports, school organizations, and community service, and working a part-time job at Dunkin Donuts.

Only yesterday you were playing with your "sticker books and babies" and when you didn't get your own way you would say "starting now" and this May 30, 2013 you will be graduating high school and heading to college. I'll admit that it saddens me to see you start the rest of your life, however it cannot compare to how happy and proud I am that I know you are so well prepared and dedicated to your dreams. Never lose sight of those dreams and never compromise anything to reach them. You are PERFECT baby girl!

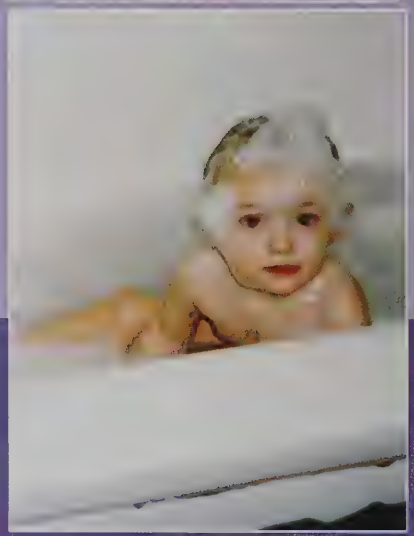
Don't ever change. I am so excited to share this next phase of your life with you.

Love Always and Forever,
MOM

Elyssa Carner

To My Beautiful Daughter,
Follow your dreams
Believe everything happens for a reason
If you get a chance, take it
If it changes your life, let it
Never let the fear of striking out keep you
from playing the game
You came into this world and changed my life,
you have taught me to be true to who I am.
Never forget to stay true to who you are Baby Girl!

I love you,
Mom



Dearest Bubbles,

You came into this world a bright eyed little wonder who clung so tightly to her daddy. Today you are a beautiful, strong, still incredibly bright eyed young lady. As you move forward in this journey called life, embrace the world, never be afraid to make a mistake, share your kindness with others, and always shoot for the stars and beyond.You always have and always will make us proud.

We love you,
Daddy, Tiffany, and Cameryn

Samantha Peabody

Samantha,

Your future does not lay in front of you... it lies deep inside you.
Life is not about finding yourself... its about creating yourself.
When life becomes a rollercoaster, climb into the front seat, throw your arms in the air, and enjoy the ride.
When life gets crazy, do something normal... and if life gets too normal, do something crazy.
Always be nice.
Practice the art of listening.
Find the joy in all the choices you make.
Never forget... I will love you forever, for always, and no matter what!

Love Dad & Kelly

To my big sister,
Congratulations Sam, I hope you have enjoyed your last year in high school. I am very proud of you. I am going to miss having you in school to look up to. I will also miss going to all of your games and cheering you on! Always remember that I look up to you and hope you have a great time in college.
-Love your little sister, Lexi.

Samantha,
We are very proud of you... you're our favorite "oldest" granddaughter. We know you will be successful in whatever you choose to do in life...
We Love You Schweetiee...
Gram and Gramps P.

Samm,
It's been a long journey, but look how fast time flies. Take time to enjoy everyday, look forward and know you've made me proud. I'll always be here for you.
Love, Wayne.

Hayley

I knew when you made cucumber hats for the Little Tykes family that you'd grow up to be creative. I knew when you stepped out of the kiddie pool and directly into the big pool with no hesitation that you'd grow up to be determined. I knew when you emptied all the toys from your closet to find the one you wanted that you'd grow up to be independent. What I didn't know then was how fast time would pass and how soon you'd become a young women that I am so proud of.

Love you, Dad

It seems like yesterday, you were playing on the swings in the yard with me. We were laughing and singing songs and being so silly. That's one of the best memories I will always have, as I look at you now. We can still do that, right? :) Back then your graduation seemed so very far away.

I want to thank you for changing my life and teaching me many things I hadn't even given a thought to. They say that parents are the first teachers, but they are learners also, and sometimes learning a lot about themselves that they never knew. I want to thank you for the things you've taught me. You've made Dad and I so very proud of your achievements, including your great involvment in community service and your academic success.You've always had the qualities of determination and compassion that will take you far in the future.

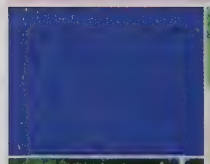
So the time has arrived. You are about to open a door that will forever change your life. The world is out there waiting for you to start your new path and we will be cheering you on and supporting you all the way!

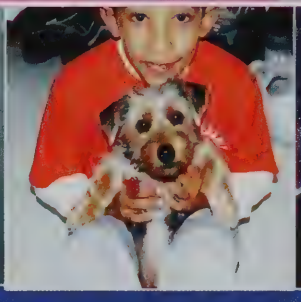
Love you, girl!! Mom

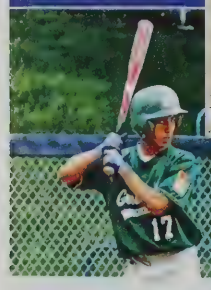
Westfall

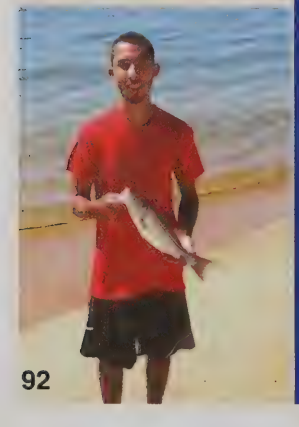
We've come a long way from playing in the leaves and bickering as kids! I've watched you grow into a beautiful young lady with maturity far beyond your years. Congrats on finally finishing high school!! Four years always used to seem so daunting, but they go by so fast. I know you'll do well in whatever you choose to do.

Love, Alex









Congratulations Marcel

The past 18 years have flown by.
I have so many memories of you running, playing, laughing, and that oh so bright smile of yours, you have a way of saying things that will make anyone smile.
You have grown into a wonderful young man but you will always be my LB. A new chapter of your life awaiting so remember to always be who you are and not who they want you to be.
Follow your dreams you can be whatever you set your mind to, you have that power. The one thing I hope you will never forget is how much we love you and we are always here for you no matter what.
We are so proud of you!!!
Love, Mom & Dad

Emma,
The years have flown by! We have loved watching you grow up into the beautiful person you have become. Whether it is watching you on stage dancing or acting, on the field playing softball or field hockey and everything in between, win or lose, we are always proud of you. We will always cheer you on and will always be here to catch you if you fall.
We love you!
